DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Group Ia, claim 1, drawn to a species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator wherein the modulator is configured to function simultaneously as a photodetector, demultiplexer, and optical pulse generator for clock-recovery, as shown in Figure 1; Group Ib, claims 2-5, drawn to a species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator including a phase-locked loop coupled to the electroabsorption modulator wherein the modulator and phase-locked loop are configured at a line rate of 40 Gb/s, as shown in Figure 5; Group Ic, claims 6-7, drawn to a species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator including first and second traveling-wave electroabsorption modulators for simultaneous photodetection, demultiplexing, and optical pulse generation, as shown in Figure 7; Group Id, claim 8, drawn to species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator in a clock recovery system for an all-optical 3R generator, as shown in Figure 10; Group Ie, claims 9-13, drawn to a species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator wherein including a phase-locked loop coupled to the traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator wherein photocurrent of the modulator is used to detect and recover an electrical clock through the phase-locked loop, as shown in Figure 2; and Group If, claims 14-23, drawn to a species of apparatus which include a traveling-wave electroabsorption modulator wherein including four ports and a phase-locked loop coupled to the modulator wherein in response to a photocurrent, the phase-locked loop generates an electrical clock with a first frequency, as shown in Figure 11.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
